One of the common refrains that we've been hearing a lot during the pandemic is, "I have no idea what day it is anymore!" Our sense of time and our daily rhythms have gone up in smoke, even if the virus has not.

All of which means that we might as well be talking about Advent, right? Believe it or not, it really is time to start thinking about that beautiful season of anticipation and waiting, a period of weeks when we really can reclaim each day and look for hints of God's presence.

For many years, Covenant has marked Advent by listening for God's Word through your voices and your words, all compiled into an Advent Devotional booklet. This year's Advent Devotional is entitled "A Song in Our Hearts," which somehow seems fitting since the necessity of social distancing this year has made it impossible to sing our songs of faith in person, and in the sanctuary.

Once again we are asking all who wish to contribute a reflection to sign up for one day during the Advent season. This year the text for some days will feature a passage from scripture while others will be a hymn or spiritual. If you would like to write in response to one of these song options, Karen will email you the lyrics to the song listed. Most come from our Glory to God hymnal, so if you have a copy at home you can access the verses directly.

Thank you in advance for contributing to our journey of hope, a journey propelled by God's Spirit and the songs of our hearts.

On behalf of the Personnel Team, I'm very pleased to announce that Covenant has hired a new Neighborhood Ministries Coordinator! His name is Travis A. Williams, an Eastside neighbor, UGA Law School grad, former Hall County public defender, community organizer, gardener, children and family advocate, and current MSW candidate in the UGA School of Social Work. Travis brings with him a wealth of experience, vision, and passion for better lives for our neighbors. As he told our search team, he aspires to "meet people where they're at."

Let me express my deep gratitude to that search team, which was ably guided by Randy Parish, and included Carrie Tweedell, Sue Goodyear, Bill Barstow, and Paige Campbell. We were blessed and almost overwhelmed with an abundance of gifted, well-qualified candidates. In the end we sifted nine down to four that we interviewed. From there Travis emerged as the person we felt could offer the best guidance for us as we seek to serve our changing neighborhood and this city with creativity, compassion, and love.

Travis has already jumped into our ministry with both feet this past week, meeting our food pantry volunteers and some of the neighbors we serve. Welcome, Travis!"

While we originally advertised this class to be held on Wednesdays, we learned that was a busy day for many. So now let's try Tuesdays at 10 a.m. beginning on September 22nd. To Zoom in we will need your email address, which you can forward to either Mark Harper at mharper@covpresathens.org or Karen Wetherington at kwetherington@covpresathens.org. Books can be ordered directly from the Open Door Community (information above). Or if you would prefer, the church office can order a copy for you; just give us enough advance notice so the books can get here on time for our first class. I look forward to this time together!

About the book: Murphy Davis is a Presbyterian pastor and life-long advocate for the poor. After being diagnosed with Burkitt's lymphoma in 1995, Murphy began an unexpected journey into a deeper solidarity with those who are vulnerable and on the margins of our society than she ever imagined. As another Presbyterian pastor, Nibs Stroupe, has written, "Surely Goodness and Mercy takes us down into the soul of one woman battling for her life, and out into the soul of our unjust and absurd American healthcare system. It testifies to the power and necessity of community. This book will inspire and convict us, as it takes us on a searing and redemptive journey of one person fighting for her life and then finding her life in the most unexpected places."

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON ZOOM STUDY September 16 at 4pm

Falling Upward, A Spirituality for the Two Halves of Life
by Richard Rohr

Facilitated by Rindy Trouteaud. The book may be ordered from Amazon.com, various prices depending on format and whether you purchase it new or used or the Bookstore at the Center for Action and Contemplation, store.cac.org.

About the book

In Falling Upward, Fr. Richard Rohr, Franciscan priest and founder of the Center for Action and Contemplation in Albuquerque, New Mexico, seeks to help readers understand the tasks of the two halves of life and to show them that those who have fallen, failed, or "gone down" are the only ones who understand "up." Most of us tend to think of the second half of life as largely about getting old, dealing with health issues, and letting go of life, but the whole thesis of this book is exactly the opposite. What looks like falling down can largely be experienced as "falling upward." In fact, it is not a loss but somehow actually a gain, as we have all seen with elders who have come to their fullness.

This message of "falling down" - that is in fact moving upward - is the most resisted and counterintuitive of messages in the world's religions, including and most especially, Christianity. In this book, Rohr offers a new paradigm for understanding one of the most profound of life's mysteries: how our failings can be the foundation for our ongoing spiritual growth. Drawing on the wisdom from time-honored myths, heroic poems, great thinkers, and sacred religious texts, Rohr explores the two halves of life to show that we grow spiritually much more by doing wrong than by doing right. With rare insight Rohr takes us on a journey to give us an understanding of how heartbreaks, disappointments, and first loves of life are actually stepping-stones to the spiritual joys that the second half of life has in store for us.

Consider joining us for conversations about living the abundant life Jesus promised his followers. To do that we will need your email address so that you can Zoom in on Wednesday afternoons; please send that to Rindy Trouteaud at rindy@trouteaud.com.

Our children's Sunday School program gets underway this week, and we begin by looking at ways we can partner with God in caring for creation. Each preschooler and elementary school aged young person received this week a Rally Day bag containing Sunday School materials for the next month. We begin with the first creation story found in Genesis 1 about creation, Separating the Waters. Each packet contains story cards for coloring, and families are encouraged to access the church website, covpresathens.org for a playlist of additional activities. This playlist will be updated every week so make it a habit to check the website every week for creative ways to help your child grow in faith. Next week we will add a playlist of youth group activities for our middle schoolers and high schoolers!

Jesus said, "You give them something to eat."

Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry

Members, and friends of Covenant have been giving generously of their time and talents to the Emergency Food Pantry. As you can imagine, the need is great.

the Tuesday Food Pantry hours are 5PM-7PM. This is being done with the thought that there may be people who work and are also in need of assistance from the Food Pantry. There also may be volunteers who work but would like to volunteer. The Thursday Food Pantry hours will remain the same: 1PM-4PM. A hearty THANK-YOU to the many volunteers who help feed our neighbors.

Some of our Volunteers!

Little Food Pantry— We continue to seek out new and faithful ways to respond to the needs of the food insecure and homeless friends in our community. UGA students built a Little Food Pantry on our church campus. It is located outside the doors of our fellowship hall. Little Food Pantries are scattered throughout Athens, and their purpose is to respond to the emergency food needs of hungry folks. We encourage you to help us keep our Little Food Pantry stocked with pop-top single serve canned goods that do not require cooking, peanut butter and jelly, packaged crackers, healthy snack items. Small individual personal hygiene items (ie: soap, deodorant, toothbrush and toothpaste, and shampoos) in a zip lock bag with a granola bar of some kind is also needed. Please remember everything must be sealed to prevent ant infestations...Please no raisins.

The Covenant coffee closet still has lots of coffee, tea, and hot chocolate ! Although the regular office hours and services are suspended, the church is open on Tuesdays and Thursdays for the Food Pantry from 1 - 4 PM. Please call the church office at 706-548-2756 and place your order and when you would like to pick it up. A food pantry volunteer will hand your order as you drive through the parking lot. In this time of uncertainty, let's not forget the hard working farmers and their families who depend on the Equal Exchange folks to buy their coffee at a Fair Price !!!
