Library Corner: Take This Bread

During the first year of the pandemic, my son and I volunteered with Covenant's food pantry and found it a rewarding experience. Someone recommended Sara Miles' book Take This Bread: The Spiritual Memoir of a Twenty-First-Century Christian. Miles was raised as an atheist and described herself as "a lesbian left-wing journalist." Thus, she was unprepared for the pull she felt when she walked into an urban church in San Francisco. Within months she was running their ever-growing food pantry for those in need. The process was messy and anything but straightforward, yet the pantry became a place where God's welcome and grace made sense of Christ's call to "feed my sheep." This book can be found in Bay F, Shelf 4. - Valerie Stone Folks - Volunteers to open and close the building for Sunday morning worship now are being sought. This is a function of the Worship as well as Building & Grounds ministry teams.

Primarily this involves unlocking the doors to worship space, turning on lights, setting HVAC controls an hour before the service; and closing down these facilities about 30 minutes after worship.

Contact the church office or Rich Reaves, 706-248-2819, to sign-up and for further details.

Speaking in Celebration, the B&G MT commends the following volunteers as weekly Grounds Stewards each month.

First Monday week = Katy Terry & Chris Wilson; Second Monday week = Don Bower & Alex Clark

Third Monday week = Phil Hale & Phil Koehler; Fourth Monday week = Susan & Randy Parish

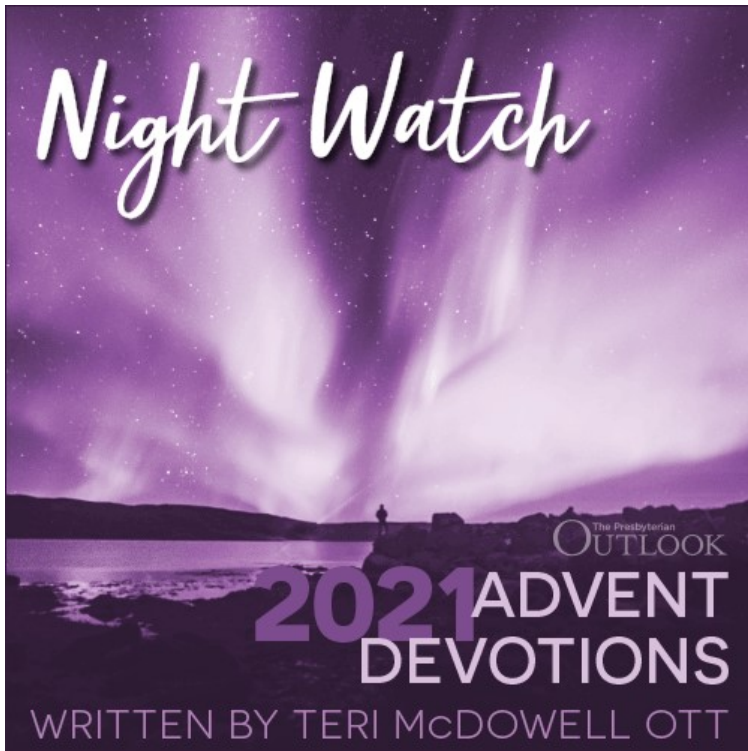

Fifth Monday week = Ellen & Dan Stoneburner

THORNWELL HOME FOR CHILDREN

Serving JESUS, by serving others!

Today we highlight the mission of Thornwell to raise awareness and funds for children and families in need. Thornwell began in 1875 in Clinton, SC by a Presbyterian minister, Reverend Jacobs, who felt a call from God to care for the orphans of the Civil War. The ministry of Thornwell has grown and evolved over its nearly 150-year history to be a leader in the call to care for children and families throughout South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida. What was once a dream in the heart of a young man, God anointed and blessed to become a transformative ministry that has impacted the lives of thousands. We celebrate Thornwell Emphasis Month with a single focus: Serving Jesus, by Serving Others! You get to be part of this. You can make a difference. You are giving hope and joy to families through the overflow of your giving. Please mark your checks for Thornwell or pick up an giving envelope on the table in the narthex.

Hope is hard to find during a long pandemic. Dark feelings of grief, loss, anger, betrayal and despair plague our souls and our communities. As the light fades and the evenings grow long this December, the season of Advent reminds us that God is with us in the night.

We can see and observe God at work in the dark, marvel at the beauty of creation lit by moon and stars, and rest from the day's labor. Darkness is often associated with evil and suffering, but a devotional exploration of "night" bears witness to Christ's Good News. Exploring biblical happenings that occur at night – visions, angel visits, prisoners set free – we will move through this Advent season as watchful disciples, keeping vigil for the One who is promised to arrive like a thief in the night.

Please email Karen at kwetherington@covpresathens.org if you would like a hard copy of this years Advent Devotional. Click on this link to access the devotional online.

TerraCycle + Kroger Packaging = $$

A few weeks ago, I mailed our first box of Kroger packaging to TerraCycle and it earned $13.65. This is important because TerraCycle does not pay the shipping costs for packaging such as candy bags and wrappers, so the $13.65 will go toward that.

If you shop at Kroger, saving plastic bags and wrappers for TerraCycle is easy because there are so many items that qualify. A few examples: bread bags, frozen vegetable and fruit bags, chip and salty snack bags, bags from cookies, nuts, coffee and fresh produce such as carrots, apples, potatoes, etc. Also, wrappers from packages of paper products and bottled water.

Remember, only Kroger brands count. This includes Simple Truth, Private Selection, Luvsome pet products, as well as the ordinary Kroger brand. Caren Snook for the Green Dream Team

Designated Opportunities to Give
Covenant Presbyterian Church
2021 - 2022

Dear Members and Friends of Covenant:

As the Christmas season approaches with the New Year 'just around the corner' practicing generosity to help others brings delight to our hearts and to the holiday season. Someone has said, "The best way to catch the spirit of Christmas is to give it to someone else."

To help us restore life-giving balance, Covenant offers alternatives, so that giving can once again become the sign of the season which celebrates the gift of God's serving love, born in a stable in Bethlehem long ago. Below are descriptions of the special opportunities to give.

On the back of this page are other benevolent opportunities to support along with a list of special offerings received during the year for your planning. Make your check payable to: Covenant Presbyterian Church and designate how you want your contribution to be used.

OPPORTUNITIES TO GIVE DURING ADVENT/CHRISTMAS

Meals on Wheels - to be received in the month of December and at the Christmas Eve service sponsor persons who receive a daily meal through the "Meals on Wheels" program. The annual cost (including food & expenses) to provide meals for one person is $2,000.00. Last year's offering enabled Covenant to support 7.5 older Athenians for this year. The congregation is encouraged to give generously.

Consider making a special gift in honor or in memory of a loved one.

COVENANT'S SPECIAL FUNDS

Benevolence Fund - to assist members and friends of the church in a crisis.

Bowden Church Vocation Fund – to provide financial assistance toward the education of members who feel called to full-time employment in ministry and to provide support to those who are mission volunteers through PCUSA or specific ministries of outreach supported by Covenant.

Make a financial donation to the Food Pantry by sending a check to Covenant and write “food pantry” in the subject line. (You could send it in at the same time you send in your pledge).

We can use grocery bags (paper or plastic), and small boxes to pack the food. If you call the church, someone could even come out to your car and get it.
