Bowden Church Vocations Fund

*a special offering for Covenant Presbyterian Church
February 2022*

We continue to be grateful to God for all the gifts of the Spirit seen in Covenant's ministry of the past 60 years.

We have had 8 candidates for ministry who attended Columbia Seminary in Atlanta: Andy Casto-Waters, Rob Lohmeyer, Jennifer and David Horton, Insook Lee, Boin Cho, David Fuentes, and Lauren Van Wicklen Peters, Colleen Cook, and 1 who attended Union in Richmond, Robin Mann Murzynski. We have also supported the efforts of our members as Volunteers in Mission, on summer Mission Teams, as student interns on our church staff, and in other studies and certifications at Montreat College and Columbia Seminary.

Named in honor of Jim & Jere Bowden's 35 year ministry here at Covenant, the BOWDEN CHURCH VOCATION FUND was established in 1996 by our Session to support our members who have been called to full-time employment in some form of Christian ministry. A special offering for the Bowden Fund will be received this month. Make checks out to Covenant and mark them BCVF or Bowden Fund. PLEASE RESPOND GENEROUSLY, as we support our members in this journey of faith together!

Presbyterian Women

Bible Study
Via ZOOM

Thursday, February 10
at 9:30am

What My Grandmothers Taught Me: Learning from the Women in Matthew's Genealogy of Jesus June Meyers and Jennifer Frey will lead the lesson. Please read lesson 6.

Did you know that
Covenant's Emergency
Food Pantry feeds
approximately 100 families each Thursday? Travis Williams, Neighborhood Ministries Coordinator, with the help of volunteers from Covenant, other churches and UGA students, distribute bags of food to approximately 100 families each week. This is made possible because of your faithful donations to the food pantry.

THANK YOU!

IN LOVING MEMORY of Christine Miller, wife of Bill Miller, passed away on January 24, 2022. She and her family were among the first members of Covenant Presbyterian Church. She served as church elder. Christine created many banners for Covenant, which aid us in our worship, specifically the white banners & the dark blue banners, expressions of her deep & abiding faith. Their 3 daughters (Celia, Leah, Heather) grew up active in Covenant's youth group. Our sympathy is extended to Christine's family. There will be a graveside service at Auburn Memorial Park Cemetery on Sunday, May 15 at 2pm.

Please submit prayer concerns and/or celebrations to the church office 706-548-2756 or kwetherington@covpresathens.org. or before worship service fill out the Prayer Concern form and put in offering plate or give to Pastor Dana.

The handbell choir is composed of different “orchestral” sections requiring varying levels of musical and physical skills. Think strings, winds, brass and percussion. Each have different demands and importance within the ensemble.

In the handbell “orchestra,” the treble bells generally play the melody and sometimes ring multiple bells simultaneously. The battery and bass bells lay down the rhythmic and chordal foundations. Bell size and weight dictate the nuances required for optimal ringing. There is something for every skill level!

The bells outlined above are what you’ve seen and heard in worship thus far.

We also have the REALLY BIG Sub-bass bells, which complete and support the entire structure of the choir. Generally, these bells ring notes of long duration. Thus, for the ringer, it’s easier to read and follow the music.

We are looking for ringers to ring the REALLY BIG Sub-bass bells.

There are fewer technical demands than the smaller bells, but a certain amount of strength is required, as is a basic ability to read music. However, no previous ringing experience is necessary. Compared to other instruments, you can learn to ring relatively quickly.

Being in the handbell choir is a definite commitment. What you see and hear in worship is the result of weekly rehearsals, focused work, and good times. It is very much a team effort, and everyone has to be there for it to work.

And when it works -- !!!

Interested in trying a bell?

Contact me or a member of the choir.

Library Corner: Alabaster Bibles

The Alabaster Company seeks to make the Bible visually beautiful and appealing. The text is the New Living Translation and is unabridged, but each book of the Bible is printed separately like a magazine on thick paper. Modern artistic photographs are added.

Our library has the Gospel of John if you'd like to take a peek. It can be found with the New Testament books at Bay B, Shelf 3. – Church Librarian Valerie Stone

Join the Covenant Social Justice Book Club, starting on February 21, 2022 at 7 PM via Zoom as we discuss 'The Mis-Education of the Negro'. In 'Miseducation', Carter G. Woodson shows us the weaknesses of education curriculums that fail to include African American history and culture. 'Miseducation', originally published in 1933, is still very relevant to modern discussions of race, history, education, and curriculum.

Join us starting Feb 21 @ 7 PM for our first session where we will cover pages 1-61

Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry

Jesus said, "You give them something to eat." Members, and friends of Covenant have been giving generously of their time and talents to the Emergency Food Pantry. As you can imagine, the need is great.

Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry Thursdays, 1pm—4pm.

Next food distribution is on Thursday, February 03!

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

STAY SAFE—If there is any reason at all that you should NOT physically volunteer—consider the following:

Make a financial donation to the Food Pantry by sending a check to Covenant and write "food pantry" in the subject line. (You could send it in at the same time you send in your pledge).

We can use grocery bags (paper or plastic), and small boxes to pack the food. If you call the church, someone could even come out to your car and get it.

If you are able to physically be present as a volunteer:

You can also share the 3-hour time slot with 2 friends!

Please sign up for Covenant Food Pantry!

Feeding 100 families every week is hard work and we need your help! Our drive-thru pantry is awesome and you should join us and impact your community.
