THE COVENANTER June 12, 2022

Member NE GEORGIA Presbytery,
Synod of the South Atlantic,
General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA)

Youth and Leaders from the Montreat Youth Conference.
We can't wait to hear all about it.

AUGUST 6 - 12—A VISITOR IS COMING TO COVENANT

We are excited to announce that Jan "Honza" Dostal, from our partner church in Olomouc, Czech Republic, is once again coming to visit Covenant. You have the opportunity to help provide enjoyable experiences for this delightful young man. Jan will be attending Montreal, will come to Athens for a visit, and then travel to Washington, DC. As a Ph.D. student of International Relations and representative of the PCUSA & Evangelical Church of Czech Brethren partnership program, Jan is interested in meeting members of our congregation, and having educational, leadership, cultural and fun experiences. If you are able to help host Jan by providing meals and/or experiences for him, please contact us: Valerie Frey Stone, valeriefreystone@gmail.com or

Rebecca Silver, ohiosilver@windstream.net

We look forward to helping organize a fun week for "Honza". Thank-you in advance for assisting us in creating a beneficial experience of friendship and discovery.

Some Building and Grounds projects you can help with:

If you take a stroll down the Continuing Education Hallway you can see that things are starting to shape up. But Ellen S has noted a missing piece of molding on the hallway bulletin board and now you'll not be able to unsee it. We have all the tools for this job if you'd like to take it on.

Our wooden benches are due for a weather-proofing treatment.

The blueberry bushes in the front need to find a more suitable home near the flower planter in back and they ain't going to move themselves. Our diligent yard-worker can dig them up if you pick the location and direct.

Encouragingly, B&G chair Brian Striggow (misterflask@gmail.com, 706-340-6352)

CARING HANDS/CARING HEARTS— (Presbyterian Homes of Georgia)

Caring Hands
Offering

As a nonprofit organization, everything we do and every decision we make is based on improving the lives of those we serve. All our income is reinvested in our communities rather than taken as profit. And thanks to generous donations, our financial outlook is strong, allowing us to offer peace of mind to our residents and their families.

More than seventy years of excellence is embodied in the caring culture of Presbyterian Homes of Georgia. Excellent staff training and a staff retention rate of 86% tells the story of the loving family inter-connectedness of our campuses. At the heart of our care is the assurance that since our founding in 1949, no resident has been asked to leave because he or she has outlived his or her financial means. The Caring Hands Fund makes that commitment possible. To donate you can earmark your check for Caring Hands made out to Covenant or go to : <https://www.phgainc.org/donate/caring-hands-offering/>. Thank you for your generous giving.

Library Corner: Lamb—When a friend sent me a copy of the novel Lamb by Christopher Moore, I didn't know what to make of it. It is the story of Christ's life before his ministry years, and it is told in a humorous fashion by "Biff, Christ's childhood pal." I'd been looking for accounts that helped me better picture Jesus' life, but was this a little irreverent? What I found, however, was a story that indeed helped me glimpse what it might have been like to be a young holy man moving through a world that did not understand him. This is not meticulously researched historical fiction, yet this quirky book is easy to read and worth the time. (Bay G, Shelf 1) – Church Librarian Valerie Stone

Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry

Jesus said, "You give them something to eat." Members, and friends of Covenant have been giving generously of their time and talents to the Emergency Food Pantry. As you can imagine, the need is great.

Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry Thursdays, 1pm—4pm.

Next food distribution is on Thursday, June 16

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

STAY SAFE—If there is any reason at all that you should NOT physically volunteer-consider the following:

Make a financial donation to the Food Pantry by sending a check to Covenant and write "food pantry" in the subject line. (You could send it in at the same time you send in your pledge).

We can use grocery bags (paper or plastic), and small boxes to pack the food. If you call the church, someone could even come out to your car and get it.

If you are able to physically be present as a volunteer:

You can also share the 3-hour time slot with 2 friends!

Please sign up for Covenant Food Pantry!

Feeding over a 100 families every week is hard work and we need your help! Our drive-thru pantry is awesome and you should join us and impact your community.

Isaiah 58:10—Feed the hungry and help those in trouble, then your light will shine out from the darkness, and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon.

For the month of May Covenant served 1,978 food insecure persons, that includes 374 children and 290 senior adults. Thank you Covenant & UGA student volunteers !

Who's Who:

Catfish Carrie Tweedell.

THANK YOU to all who planned and participated in the Pentecost Celebration last week! It was wonderful! We are so glad that our children and youth could participate also!! The Worship Service and the Reception afterward were so meaningful and enjoyable. We are looking forward to more celebrations in the Fall.

With gratitude, The Worship Ministry Team

THIS WILL BE A GENERAL ASSEMBLY UNLIKE ANY OTHER.

For the first time in four years, General Assembly commissioners will gather in person – at least for committee meetings – for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)’s first hybrid assembly, built around the theme “From Lament to Hope.” The assembly will be longer than usual: stretched out from June 18 to July 9, three action-packed weeks instead of one, with 471 commissioners and 111 advisory delegates. Committees will meet in newly- renovated space at the PC(USA)’s national offices in Louisville with mandatory masks and COVID-19 vaccinations.

Plenary sessions will be online — including a Juneteenth worship service on June 19, commemorating the emancipation of enslaved African Americans. An online “Hands and Feet” event July 7 will focus on ending cash bail.

The business coming this year reflects public policy concerns – from racism to gun violence to global warming – as well as internal issues facing a denomination such as declining membership and a growing number of small but faithful congregations. Here’s some of what to expect.

Climate change. The Committee on Mission Responsibility Through Investment (MRTI) is recommending that the PC(USA) divest from five energy companies – Chevron, ExxonMobil, Marathon Petroleum, Phillips 66, and Valero Energy – that MRTI says are not making sufficient progress to protect the planet from global warming. An overture from Hudson River Presbytery is calling for the denomination to fully divest from fossil fuel companies — setting up a likely debate over what’s the most responsible approach and whether the PC(USA) is moving quickly and forcefully enough in its response to climate change.

Racism. This assembly has a committee devoted specifically to issues of race and gender justice — including a report from the Special Committee on Racism Truth and Reconciliation, which calls for more work to be done to “explore and expose where White supremacy is embedded institutionally and foundationally” in the PC(USA), and encourages congregations to investigate their own histories involving people of color. An overture from the Presbytery of Giddings-Lovejoy calls for the PC(USA) to apologize to African Americans “for the sin of slavery and its legacy.” And the committee will consider a report from the Disparities Experienced by Black Women and Girls Task Force.

Israel/Palestine. There have been rumblings in recent months over remarks that J. Herbert Nelson, the PC(USA)’s stated clerk, made describing Israel’s occupation of Palestinian territories as “21st century slavery.” Debate over that may rise up again — perhaps as the assembly considers an overture from Grace Presbytery to declare that Israel’s policies, laws and practices regarding the Palestinian people amount to apartheid.

Financial sustainability. The Special Committee on Per-Capita Based Funding and National Church Financial Sustainability is proposing a restructuring of the top levels of the national church — a recommendation that reflects concern about the ability of the current per capita funding system to sustain the denomination when so many mid councils and small congregations are feeling financial pressure. At the heart of this discussion: what structure and funding systems are needed for a denomination that’s half the size it was 20 years ago?

Gun violence. Week after week, people of faith are called to pray for those killed and injured after yet another mass shooting. An assembly committee on Addressing Violence in the USA will consider overtures calling for the PC(USA) to support tighter gun control, including universal background checks before firearms can be purchased and a ban on the sale and ownership of assault weapons. The Advisory Committee on Social Witness Policy wants the assembly to approve the “Decade to End Gun Violence,” a 10-year campaign from 2022 to 2032 “to be conducted at all levels of the church.”

Denominational matters. The assembly also will consider issues affecting the church itself, including a proposed amendment to the PC(USA) constitution to require that the minimum terms of call for all ministers would include 12 weeks of paid family medical leave. Also of interest: several recommendations to write new confessions for the PC(USA) and measures seeking to provide more flexibility for new worshipping communities and immigrant congregations in allowing their leaders to become ruling elders with voice and vote at presbytery.

Leadership. Two teams are standing to serve as the assembly’s co-moderators:

Josefina Ahumada, a commissioned ruling elder from the Presbytery de risto, with Marilyn McKelvey Tucker-Marek, a minister from Flint River Presbytery; and Shavon Starling-Louis of Charlotte Presbytery with Ruth Santana-Grace of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, both ministers. The election will be held June 18.

Follow along from home: Presbyterians can watch General Assembly committee and plenary sessions via a live stream on the internet, and can track assembly business through www.pc-biz.org.
