THE COVENANTER
 November 05, 2023

Member NE GEORGIA Presbytery,
 Synod of the South Atlantic,
 General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA)

November 1

Remembering loved ones who have gone on before us.

The commemoration of the saints goes to the heart of our faith; death has not won (1 Corinthians 15: 55-57); in all we do we are accompanied by fellow Christians, living and dead (Hebrews 12: 1); and in the end we will join others in praising God eternally (Revelation 7: 9-10). In worship we will refer to them during a moment of recognition and prayer.

Thornwell Offering
Building Tomorrow's Families Today
November 2023

Be a partner with us to change communities one family at a time. Thornwell began in 1875 in Clinton, SC by a presbyterian minister, Reverend Jacobs, who felt a call from God to care for the orphans of the Civil War. The Ministry of Thornwell has grown and evolved over its 150-year history to be a leader in the call to care for children and families throughout South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida. What was once a dream in the heart of a young man, God anointed and blessed to become a transformative ministry that impacted lives of thousands. Covenant has a history of giving hope and joy to families through our giving in the month of November. Fill your Thornwell turkey with coins, bills, or checks made out to Covenant Presbyterian with a notation on the memo portion for Thornwell. Just place your stuffed turkey in the offering plate one Sunday the month of November.

2023 Holiday Benevolence Market

When: Sunday, December 3, 2023, Noon-3 p.m.

Where: Covenant Fellowship Hall

What is the Holiday Benevolence Market?

This is the 29th year of this symbolic gift-giving opportunity and First Presbyterian Church and Covenant Presbyterian Church are partnering to host the market on the East Side of Athens. Our hope is to flood the Market with families from all the Athens congregations to join us in supporting our local non-profits! There will be more than 30 local Athens non-profit organizations sharing about their service to our community...to give them a chance to share about how they serve our neighbors most in need, to connect with new possible volunteers and to collect donations for their work.

Why should we go to the Holiday Benevolence Market?

We hope your members will attend worship at your congregation and then hop on over to Covenant to shop for symbolic holiday gifts with your children and grandchildren. This Market is specifically designed to spread the word about the organizations in our amazing city while also teaching our children and grandchildren about generosity and how we are blessed to be a blessing.

How does the Holiday Benevolence Market work?

When you arrive you will be greeted and handed two "Shopping Lists"....a grown-up one and a children's one. As you look around the Fellowship Hall you will see the 30 local organizations listed in the shopping lists set up at tables (ie. Athens Habitat for Humanity, Project Safe, Athens Area Diaper Bank, Athens Wellness Clinic, Books for Keeps, etc.).

The Grown-Up Shopping List will include items like: Athens Area Diaper Bank: $15 to provide diapers for a child for a month and Athens Area Habitat for Humanity: $5.00 box of nails

Our Children's Shopping List will include lower-cost and more concrete items that might appeal to children who want to buy a gift for their parents or grandparents. For example- Strong Girls Serve might list $1 for pencils or $5 for books. With the Children's Shopping List we are hoping to help our children begin to understand the simplicity of giving to others and what a huge impact small acts of generosity can make for our neighbors in need.

Once you have "shopped" around the Holiday Benevolence Market you check off your Shopping List with all of the symbolic gifts you'd like to purchase and write a single check to the "Holiday Benevolence Market" (100% tax deductible). If you are not able to attend the market, you can also send your donation through our online link or mail your shopping list and check to Holiday Benevolence Market, P.O. Box 1592, Athens, GA. 30601.
