This fall, our worship will feature a sermon series called A Strange New World: Another Story to Live By. The theologian Karl Barth once wrote that “within the Bible there is a strange, new world, the world of God.” Scripture does more than offer familiar religious ideas or helpful lessons for the lives we are already living.

Again and again, it opens a door into a world that can enlarge and unsettle our own – a world where strangers become teachers, abundance is measured by whether all have enough, power takes the shape of self-giving love, and God is found in places we might never have thought to look. From Rally Day through Christ the King Sunday, we will enter that strange biblical world together, listening for the ways its stories and visions might help us see our own lives, our church, and our common life with fresh eyes – and discover another story by which to live.

Join us as we learn to approach the Bible with greater clarity, confidence, and appreciation! Together we will explore what the Bible is, how it's structured, how its many literary genres work, and how its writings emerged from the worlds of ancient Israel, Second Temple Judaism, and the wider Greco-Roman Mediterranean. We will also consider why Bible translations differ, how to choose a good study Bible, and how to use tools such as commentaries, Bible dictionaries, atlases, and other helps. Along the way, we will model careful study of selected biblical passages, learning how historical context, literary attention, and interpretive humility can open these ancient texts in fresh and meaningful ways.

The Fifth Gospel? The Gospel of Thomas in Conversation with The Canonical Gospels” Facilitated by Pastor Tom
The Gospel of Thomas is one of the most intriguing non-canonical writings to survive from early Christianity. Over six weeks, we will read it alongside the biblical Gospels and explore what these texts together reveal about Jesus, the transmission of early Christian traditions, and the different ways early Christians understood discipleship and salvation. Our format will be informal and discussion-oriented. Bibles and paper copies of the Gospel of Thomas will be available. If you would like a copy of the Participant Packet (not “required,” but gives an overview of the series, plus a translation of Thomas), contact Pastor Tom.

2025-2026 Treasurer's report

The 2025-2026 fiscal year for Covenant Presbyterian ended on June 30, 2026. The following is a summary of income and expenses for the year.

Pledges were received in the previous year's pledge drive for $446,318. The actual donations received from individuals participating in pledging was $469,318, an excess of $23,290. The budget had anticipated unpledged gifts of $20,000, while $40,494 was received, an excess of $20,494.

Interest income of $4,400 on savings was anticipated in the budget while $7124 was received. Rent collections were $2040 from building users, exceeding the budget by $40.

Expenditures were less than budgeted by $16,181. The primary savings were in the departure of the Outreach Coordinator prior to year end and unrealized projects in Christian Education. Significant areas exceeding budget were utilities and various Buildings and Grounds Projects.

In summary:

2025—2026	ANTICIPATED	ACTUAL	SURPLUS
PLEDGES	$ 446,318.00	$ 469,607.85	$ 23,289.85
NON-PLEDGED OFFERINGS	$ 20,000.00	$ 40,493.79	$ 20,493.79
RENT & SAVINGS & INVESTMENTS	$ 6,400.00	$ 9,124.40	$ 2,724.40
GEN OPERATING SURPLUS	$ 4,905.00	$ 4,905.00
TOTALS	$ 477,623.00	$ 524,171.04	$ 46,548.04
EXPENSES	$ 477,623.00	$ 461,441.63	$ 16,181.37
		TOTAL SURPLUS	$ 62,729.41

Yes, the year ended with $62,729.41 of excess funds.

Note that in the 2026-2027 budget, $25,000 excess funds from this year was anticipated and budgeted to be used. The budget also planned a drawdown of Fund Principal of $3,747, which is offset by excess funds.

At the close of the fiscal year, the church held $226,587 in restricted funds (restricted funds are designated for a particular purpose by either the donor or the Session). The year ended with an operating fund balance was $219,780. It is fair to say the church is well positioned for continued operations and to embark on projects supporting our mission.

Respectfully, Brian Striggow, Treasurer
