THORNWELL—It is through our faith that God calls us to care for the most vulnerable and know that he will provide. Each November is Thornwell Emphasis Month to help families to grow strong and stay rooted in faith. Whether through a prayer, a post on social media, or coins dropped into a beloved Tom the Turkey bank, you gifts make a lasting difference.

Ways to Give:

Fill up a Turkey with your coins or use the envelope on the table in front of the church office

Make checks payable to Covenant with Thornwell in the memo portion of your check or go to https://thornwell.org/give/

Thank you Covenant!

Honoring all who served!

BIRD WALK 11/14, 8 AM-10 AM
WITH WYATT HERNDON
Location: Botanical Gardens.
Meet-up location: Parking Lot
Sign-up sheet: 15 max Fall Migration is here! Come and listen to the sounds of fall at the Botanical Gardens on November 14th at 8 am. Whether you're a beginner birdwatcher or experienced, this is an opportunity to witness the sights and sounds of the creation while learning a thing or two about birds along the way! A sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board. We will meet in the parking lot by the elevator at the Botanical Gardens. We will be doing minimal walking, but plenty of standing. Benches are located throughout the Gardens. Bring binoculars if you have any. If you have extra binoculars, feel free to bring those to share. Bring anything else that would prepare you for an enjoyable birdwatching experience: caffeine, warm clothing, field guides, etc.

This fall, our worship will feature a sermon series called A Strange New World: Another Story to Live By. The theologian Karl Barth once wrote that "within the Bible there is a strange, new world, the world of God." Scripture does more than offer familiar religious ideas or helpful lessons for the lives we are already living. Again and again, it opens a door into a world that can enlarge and unsettle our own – a world where strangers become teachers, abundance is measured by whether all have enough, power takes the shape of self-giving love, and God is found in places we might never have thought to look. From Rally Day through Christ the King Sunday, we will enter that strange biblical world together, listening for the ways its stories and visions might help us see our own lives, our church, and our common life with fresh eyes – and discover another story by which to live.

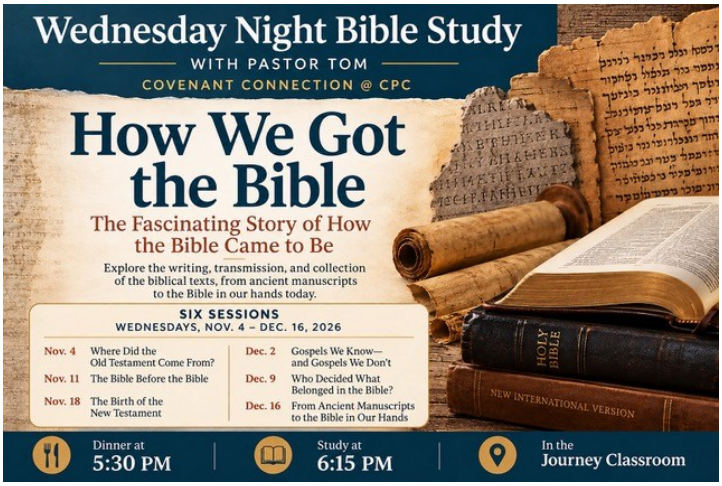

Athens Area Emergency Food Bank is still in need of brown paper bags. Please put them on the table as you enter the gathering room. (please no egg cartons) Thank you!

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING
Sunday, November 15 following worship to receive the report from the Nominating Committee and to elect new elders for the class of 2029.

ADVENT finds us in the real, honest moments of our lives — in grief and exhaustion, strained relationships and quiet doubts, hope and longing. Dear Pastor: Advent Letters is an Advent devotional from Presbyterian Outlook that brings those experiences into conversation with the hope of Christ. Inspired by real pastoral experiences, each "Dear Pastor" letter gives voice to the kinds of questions and struggles people bring to pastors and church leaders. We've recruited a variety of pastors and church leaders to respond to these letters, reflecting on the traditional Advent themes of hope, peace, joy and love and what they offer us in the midst of complicated, imperfect lives. The questions posed in each "Dear Pastor" letter aren't polished or always "right." They are honest — and the responses invite readers to consider where Christ meets us in the space between promise and fulfillment, between what has been and what will be.

The devotional will be available on the table in front of the office November 22, 206.

Peace Corps

Hannah Barnett has completed her three months of Peace Corps training in San José, Costa Rica, and has now relocated to her permanent assignment in Sona Fluca. She will serve there for the next two years. She is doing well, and we are excited to see the ways she will contribute to and become part of her new community.

Receiving letters and packages can be difficult in her location, but she would love to hear from her church family! You can reach her by email at tally10barnett@gmail.com.

THE GOD BOTHERERS CLASS - Sunday, November 8, at 9:30am - Covenant Library.
A Wideness in God's Mercy: Christian Faith and the World's Religions,
A New Six-Week God-Botherers Sunday School Series
Christians confess Jesus Christ as the decisive revelation of God's love for the world. Yet we share that world with people whose lives are shaped by other religious traditions, sacred stories, and encounters with the divine. How should we understand their faith? Is God at work in the world's other religions? And can we remain deeply committed to our Christian identity while recognizing the spiritual wisdom and truth that others may have to offer? In this six-week series, we'll explore some of the most influential approaches Christian theologians have developed to these questions, from traditional exclusivism through various forms of inclusivism and religious pluralism. Along the way, we'll engage Scripture and influential thinkers such as Karl Barth, Karl Rahner, John Hick, and Paul Knitter. Join us for thoughtful, open-ended conversation about the mystery of God's grace, the particularity of Christ, and what it means to live with love, openness, and generosity in a world of many religions.

Join the Covenant "Eek" Squad!

We have Covenant members who sometimes need a ride or assistance with last-minute needs. This volunteer group would be a group communication thread (kind of like a prayer chain) where we can broadcast needs by phone, and members can respond in real time if they can help.

We imagine that most of the needs in the thread will be for our senior Covenant members who may occasionally need a ride to a doctor's appointment, help moving a piece of furniture, etc.

Contact the church office at kwetherington@covpresathens.org or 706-548-2756
if you are interested in becoming a part of the EEK! Squad.
